SUPPOSED SUICIDE.

Miss Prudie Ford a School Girl in Hartford College Disappears.

Wednesday afternoon about 3 o'clock Miss Prudie Ford, a student in Hartford College, asked to be excused and has not been seen since. She had boarded at the home of Mrs. Polly Collins, until recently when some money and articles of jewelry were missed by Mrs. Collins and the young lady was accused. She then changed her room to Jailer Oscar Midkiff's where she had since made her home. She did not learn of the charge against her until Wednesday. She did not return to the Midkiff home Wednesday night but no alarm was felt as it was thought she had gone to spend the night with a girl friend. However, yesterday when she could not be located inquiry was made and it was found she had not gone to her home at Friedland, near Horse Branch.

Her sweetheart, Lawrence Gary, went to Horse Branch yesterday but could get no trace of her whereabouts. About 7 o'clock last evening learning that a young lady had been seen on the river bank near the old water mill, Messrs. C. P. Keown, John King and others went to the spot and found her tracks leading down into the water and near by letters directed to her father and mother and the one given below, directed to her sweetheart, Lawrence Gary, who is also a student at Hartford College.

"LAWRENCE DARLING."

"Since I left Mrs. Collins' she has accused me of stealing some things from her and God knows I am innocent. She says she will have me prosecuted but I hardly think she will. I am now at the old water mill and ready to jump in. I love you and have been true to you, but rather than to have my name mingled with any such as this, will bid you God's speed and adieu. May this life be happy, but Oh! remember me. I shall await your coming in the next world. You have always said that should you commit suicide you would rather drown. I said I would rather poison myself, but to be sure and certain of ending my life I will take a dose of both. Be a good boy and meet me in the better world."

"PRUDIE."

This seems to leave no room to doubt that the poor girl has drowned herself to escape what she thought disgrace. The young lady is about 17 years of age and a daughter of Mr. Ned Ford, a highly respected citizen of Friedland, this county. At 10 o'clock last night, the hour this paper went to press, a large party of citizens were searching the river with grappling hooks near the place the letters were found, for the body.

Announcement Christian Church.

A series of meetings will begin at the First Christian church in Hartford on the first Sunday in April conducted by Rev. W. B. Wright, Pastor of the Church. The Church has secured the Opera House for holding said meetings, also the services of Prof. Leonard Daugherty who will have charge of the song service.

A cordial invitation is extended to the citizens of Hartford and surrounding community to be present and assist in these meetings, and the Ministers and church workers are especially invited to join with us in this work.

Killed in Wreck.

Last Sunday afternoon quite a number of people gathered at a curve below Horse Branch to witness the removal of some wrecked cars. After the wreck had been picked up and preparations were being made to pull the train into Horse Branch through the neglect of some of the R. R. employs, a heavy coal train crashed into the wrecker. Two boys, Norb Ferguson and Waitman Brooks, had received permission to remain in the car attached to the wrecker and knew nothing of an approaching train until the crash came. The car was splintered and young Brooks, whose home is at Marshal S. O. Keown's, was hurled several feet away and escaped instant death by climbing an almost perpendicular bank however his body is almost covered with cuts and bruises. Then the young Ferguson boy's body was found in an almost unrecognizable heap. He was the oldest son of James Ferguson employed as bridge carpenter on I. C. R. R. and was much liked by all who knew him. His remains were taken to Salem Monday at 2 o'clock P. M. and buried.

MRS. KITTY ANN TAYLOR
Died at the Home of Her Daughter in Louisville Last Sunday Night.

Mrs. Kitty Ann Taylor died at 11:40 o'clock Sunday night at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. C. E. Walker, of Louisville.

Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Kitty Wallace. She was born near Owensboro, April 11, 1831 and married Barnett Trible in 1857. Three children were born to them. Two of these died in infancy and the only remaining one being Mrs. Clarence E. Walker, of Louisville. About four years after Mr. Trible's death Mrs. Taylor married Harrison D. Taylor, of Hartford. Since Mr. Taylor's death she has lived with her daughter in Louisville and Hon. H. P. Taylor, of Hartford, her step-grandson.

Mrs. Taylor joined the Methodist church when a mere child and has always been a most consistent and loyal member.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of Mr. W. B. Cosby, Owensboro, and the burial was at Elmwood.

In Memory.

Mr. Ellis Roach, one of the most prominent citizens of this county passed away March 16th, at the home of his brother, Mr. Julian Roach who lives near Magan. The deceased leaves a wife and three children. He was loved by all who knew him. He was a consistent Christian, a kind husband and a good father. By his death the county has lost one of its best citizens, the church one of its most faithful constituents, the community one of its best neighbors, and the family an almost idolized husband and father. Always considerate in his treatment of others, he leaves a whole host of sorrowing friends and relatives to whom we extend our most sincere sympathy.

KILLED BY SIGNAL ARM

Engineer on Flying Train Loses His Life While Watching out For Trains Safety.

The second death in a railroad accident within two days at Horse Branch occurred there Tuesday about 4 o'clock in the morning, Colley Butler, an engineer being struck on the head by a signal arm and killed. Colley had his head out the cab window looking ahead on the track and the arm dropped and struck him, crushing his skull. He fell back in the cab with a groan and the fireman at first thought that some one had thrown a stone which had struck him. The blood gushed from the wounded man's mouth, nose and ears, and the fireman at once stopped the train and secured help. Colley was carried to a house near by and a physician was summoned, but he was in a dying condition when the doctor arrived, living but a few minutes.

Investigation showed that the signal post had caused the accident. It had always been regarded by the railroad men as dangerous on account of its being so close to the track, and they are generally on the lookout for it.

LATER REPORT.

In some mysterious manner, Hiram C. Butler, Illinois Central engineer, was almost instantly killed near Horse Branch while on his engine pulling a freight train into Louisville. He was struck in the forehead by some hard substance, but what the substance was, is a complete mystery, even the fireman who was on the engine with him having no idea what caused Butler's death. He was leaning out of the cab window and suddenly sank back unconscious with a wound in his forehead. A report was sent out that Butler was killed by his head coming in contact with a signal arm but there is none near the scene of the accident. Another report was that Butler was killed by a rear-end collision, but there was no collision.

Shultz to make a number of lectures on temperance in any part of this county where they may be desired by Sunday schools, churches or any person or organizations that will agree to advertise the appointment and furnish places. Prof. Shultz is well and favorable known over the county and is certainly establishing an enviable reputation as a lecturer. No admission charges. So call on or write the committee in regard to dates or further information. A. D. Park, Chairman.

DRAKE-HOLBROOK CASE.

Decided Wednesday in Holbrook's Favor---Kincheloe vs. Smith Reversed.

The long drawn out case of W. P. Drake and brothers against Rowan Holbrook was decided by the Court of Appeals Wednesday in favor of Mr. Holbrook. The suit was filed in the Ohio Circuit Court on the 12th day of May, 1900. The plaintiffs, Drake's sought to recover of defendant Holbrook $6,000 damage for alleged fraudulent representations in the sale of twenty shares of stock in the Fields Coal Company, of Island, Kentucky.

The case has been tried in Circuit Court here three times. Holbrook won each time, the Court of Appeals twice reversing it. The last trial was had in August 1904 and an appeal was prosecuted which resulted in an affirmance Wednesday. This ends the matter finally.

At the same sitting of the Court of Appeals Wednesday a decision was handed down reversing the case of T. R. Kincheloe against J. Z. Smith. This suit was brought by Kincheloe to recover for the loss of a dwelling house which burned on a farm bought by him from Smith before Smith delivered possession to him.

PLAYING TO GALLERIES

Way Some "Insiders" Regard
Beckham's Latest Move.

Calling of Extra Session Believed to Have had Deeper Motive
Than the Call Reflects.

After the consternation which followed Gov. Beckham's shrewd and spectacular political move in calling the Legislature in extraordinary session, members of the general assembly and hangers-on, having recovered from the dazzling effect of the spectacular play, began to ask one another and themselves: How long will it last? Will there be another fight? and will any questions other than the rectifiers tax and the revenue agents be taken up?

The general opinion among legislators seems to be that the special session will not last longer than twenty days, that there is no reason why it should last longer to dispose of the two matters indicated in the Governor's call, but legislators have a failing for drawing their "per diem per day," and Frankfort is a pleasant place to spend a vacation. Moreover there is no certainty that other measures will not come up for consideration. Gov. Beckham indicated that he might amend his call, and already members of the Legislature are asking him to amend it so that pet measures may be introduced again and considered.

But before disclosing his plan for an extra session Gov. Beckham assured himself that several measures which he wished passed, went through without a hitch. Especially was this true of $250,000 appropriation bill for the State Capitol, and of the Legislative Redistricting bill. Then, knowing that he had secured all from the Senate that he wanted, he flashed his call for an extra session. It was the "ace in the hole" with which the rectifiers have not reckoned. They were caught in the net trap. No longer could they hold up legislation favorable to the administration to force an agreement in their interest. The Governor now holds the strings of legislation. They cannot consider a thing that he does not wish. They have only one consolation. The Governor can say what shall be considered, but the legislators only can say how long they will take in considering it. And it may resolve itself into a long drawn fight, a test of endurance between the House and the Senate.

There are others who, putting aside as trivial the spectacular features of the Governor's play, look closer, and claim to see far deeper political significance in the call than any outwitting of the rectifiers' faction or any desire to tax the rectifier or increase the revenue of the State. Gov. Beckham and his machine have broken entirely with the whisky element, and are now playing to the temperance people. They see a "play to the galleries" in the call.

Rarest American Plant.

Of all rare plants in America the most rare is the buckleya, which has disappeared from all known places except two—Paint Rock, in North Carolina, the refuge of plants in hiding, and Wolf Creek, in Tennessee. Its foliage is delicate and graceful and it bears oily little nuts of a rather agreeable flavor. As for its flower, they are rather odd, having no petals and being of two distinct kinds, one growing solitary at the ends of twigs and the other in tiny clusters between a pair of leaves. Its fruit is a queer, long ridged drupe, dotted with bright orange and sometime with a long fringe at the end. Dr. Asa Gray carried it to Cambridge, Mass., and it seemed to thrive, but he could never raise any more from it. After a long while its secret was found out. It lives usually on the Carolina hemlock, a perpetual guest to this host plant and doing no work for Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

CHEAPEST FARM LAND.

Southwest Officers Best Opportunities for Securing Homes.

Many farmers in the Northern and Eastern states are selling their high priced lands and locating in the Southwest. Many who have been unable to own their homes in the older country are buying land in the new country.

Unusual opportunities exist along the lines of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain Route. The rich, alluvial, delta lands and river bottom lands of Southeast Missouri, Eastern Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas capable of producing 60 bushels of corn, a bale of cotton, 4 to 6 tons of alfalfa, 150 bushels of potatoes, and other grain, vegetables and hay crops, can be bought for $7.50 to $15.00 per acre. When cleared and slightly improved will rent for $4.00 to $6.00 per acre cash.

Uplands more rolling, lighter soil, adapted to fruit growing—peaches, pears, plums, grapes, berries—also melons, tomatoes and other vegetables; can be bought for $5.00 to $10.00 per acre in unimproved state. Many places with small clearings and some improvements can be bought very cheap.

This is a fine stock country. No long winter feeding. Free range, pure water, mild climate. A healthy growing country, with a great future.

OSTRICH FARMING IN U. S.

Two Thousand of the Queer Birds on a Farm Near Los Angeles.

Few people know that ostrich farming is carried on profitably and on a large scale in the United States. The queer antics and habits of this strangest and biggest of birds are well worth a visit to the ostrich farms, of which there are many in southern California and a few elsewhere as in Phoenix, Arizona, says the Detroit Free Press.

One farm near Los Angeles has 2,000 of the birds. The chief duty of the keepers is to have the creatures in a happy frame of mind. As long as they succeed in this, everything goes well and each spring there is a rich crop of plumes. The ostrich when discontented shows it by kicking and his kicks are the dread of the keepers. An ostrich's kick is as powerful as that of a mule and much better aimed and more sudden. Prof. Shillings the famous photographer of wild animals, says he has seen an ostrich kick a lion into complete submission. The big bird's legs, however, are as delicate as a pugilist's hands, and whenever a kick does not land quite true the ostrich ends his career with a broken leg.

The farms are spread over many acres. Each bird has his own territory bounded by imaginary lines which nobody but the ostrich itself can cross. If any bird or any person but the accredited keeper crosses the line the kicking begins.

It requires three or four days of coaxing, enticing and frightening to collect the birds for the spring plucking. They are finally crowded into an inclosure so tightly that there is no room to kick. From there they are taken to the plucking box which is also too narrow to permit kicking and there the tail plumes are plucked.

Crushed bones are generally eaten. They require the phosphate the bones contain. Should a too large bone stick in the neck it is a simple matter to cut it out and sew the place up again. The wound as a rule heals quickly and causes but little inconvenience.

Ostriches are mostly fed on meal and alfalfa. They will swallow almost anything small enough to pass down the neck such as oranges, small fowls, tortoises, turkeys, chickens and kittens.

One of the owners of a camp found an ostrich cock in his dining room helping himself, one after another to the contents of a box of luscious peaches. He also spoke of a tennis ball being sent beyond the tennis grounds close to an ostrich, which at once swallowed it with an evident relish bringing the game to a sudden end. They will swallow yards of fencing wire in short pieces.

officers were on board. There must also be stated the draught of water at the time of sailing the hour of sailing state of tide, weather, wind, limits of intended voyage, loss incurred and cause of casualty. These particulars are for use in the Admiralty Court.

Collisions at sea are fruitful of much litigation. Owners endeavor to obtain photographs where possible as evidence. The Receivers in addition to obtaining depositions have to keep a constant lookout for driftage for which any owner may be found or which may be converted into coin.

If anybody should chance to rescue and wreckage or "driftage," as it is technically termed in the shape of barrels of beer oil or balks of timber from the water in the lower reaches of the Thames he will probably receive a percentage of the gross value in the way of salvage money provided of course that he delivers up the goods to the authorities. He is not legally entitled to anything but it is customary to make such a reward. Not infrequently this kind of merchandise is found derelict on the river. The percentage awarded varies according to the value of the find.

Advantages of Living on Mars.

Those weary of the world might find it pleasanter on Mars. Camille Flammarion details many advantages in favor of Martians. They at least can always tell with almost absolute certainty what sort of weather is to be their portion not less than two weeks in advance. Besides this they themselves are extremely clever and might furnish amusement for the blaze of earth. They are supposed to be several millions of years ahead of the earth dwellers in intellectual race far superior to our own, as astronomical observations increasingly tend to indicate. They are also in a better position than we are to free themselves from the heaviness of matter, since they weigh less. Their years are twice as long as those on earth. And their climatic conditions are always more agreeable than ours.

PAYS PENALTY ON SCAFFOLD.

Garth Tompkins, a Negro, Hanged at Madisonville.

Killed James Drame, December 24.

1902, Because He Was Living With His Wife.

Madisonville, Ky., March 16.—Garth Tompkins, colored, was hanged at 6:35 o'clock this morning, and in exactly fourteen minutes he was pronounced dead. Tompkins died game.

He was hanged in an enclosure in the rear of the jail. It was announced several days ago that Tompkins would be hanged in the Circuit Court room, as citizens objected to the execution in the lot in the rear of the jail.

Tompkins walked from the jail unassisted and climbed the steps to the scaffold, and after reaching the top inspected it and then took his place on the trap, the guards never having to touch him.

He thanked the attorneys and the people of the town for the kindness shown him in trying to save his life. After a short prayer by the Rev. R. B. Hendricks, colored, the trap was sprung and his neck was broken.

Garth Tompkins was a native of Hopkins county, and had all his life been a terror to those of his race in this county.

His first serious trouble was about six years ago, when he shot and wounded a negro boy and was given a short term in the penitentiary. He served his term and came back to Madisonville, and found that his wife had not been true to him and was married to and living with Jas. Brame. He immediately filled up on whiskey and armed himself and went to the home of Brame and shot him, and was soon landed in jail to await trial.

The murder was committed on the evening of December 24, 1902, and he was given trial in the September term of Hopkins county circuit court, 1903, and was sentenced to death. His attorneys asked for a new trial in the September term of court, 1904, and the sentence was repeated. His attorneys then took an appeal, and the court of appeals affirmed the decision of the lower court.

A number of petitions and letters were sent to commute it to a life sentence to the penitentiary.

Tompkins made a profession of religion and was baptized into the Baptist church soon after he learned that he must die. He declared to the last that he was prepared to meet his God. While the contractors were working on the scaffold of execution at the rear of the county jail, Tompkins was continuously singing religious hymns and praying. He said to the last he would rather die than be sent to the penitentiary for life.

Tompkins' mother stood by him to the last. She owned property here and spent all of it in the effort to save her boy. His brother also disposed of a house and lot in the attempt to save his neck.

Every inch of the ground was contested by his attorneys from the beginning of the trial to the day of execution much of their work being done when they knew they would never receive one cent of their labor.

Nine Million Plows at Work.
It's flowing time, says an interesting and authoritative article in Farming for March. Two hundred million acres of land will be plowed this year in the United States and about 9,000,000 plows are on the farms to do the work. The capital invested in plows alone represents $80,000,000. Such a multitude of types of plows and plowmen can be found on this continent that we can name but a few. In the great Southwest the Mohave, with his three or four squaws, starts for the planting ground. Each woman carries her

FACTS IN NATURE.

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature and help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids' Hospital and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic, or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred derangements.

If you have coated tongue with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, stitches or pain in side, back gives out easily and aches, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowel movements, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms, they point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed in plain English on wrapper.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One a laxative; two or three are cathartic.

Digging stick, the most primitive of all plows, and the man stands guard all day while the "original farmers" of this country dig the land and plant their gourd seeds. In Canada, but for the interference of the Government, we might see the Doukhobor women drawing the plow in exactly the same way that they have done for centuries. In New England the oxen are being yoked, and in the Middle West the four-horse teams are ready. In the South the negro sits on his plow stilt to watch the train go by.

In other parts of the country we find traction engines at work, plowing forty or more acres a day and requiring but two or three men to do it.

The plow stands for civilization, and all civilized nations plow. No savage ever thought of plowing as we understand it, because it involves forethought and a preparation for the future.

Niagara Falls Already Ruined.

"Niagara Falls are already ruined," says the eminent hydraulic engineer, Alton D. Adams, in Technical World Magazine for April. "Already enough water rights have been granted by New York State and Canada to divert all the water which now, falling over both the American and the Canadian falls makes the great cataract one of the national wonders of the world. If the capitalists and promoters who now hold franchises were all to establish plants, the entire flow of Niagara river would be diverted into underground channels; and the mighty cliffs over which the torrent now pours in resistless grandeur would be left rugged and bald and dry."

Mr. Adams sees small hope in the proposed treaty between the United States and Britain. He does not believe that Canada will be a willing party to any treaty which will cut off the great income it enjoys from leasing Niagara power. His plan is to excavate and deepen the channel leading to the American fall, which will otherwise run dry long before the Canadian or Horseshoe Falls will be at all affected.

OFFERS FROM 375 MEN

English Lady Publishes Eight Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Nine Love Letters.

London, England, March 12.—An old maiden lady from Bristol named Susanne Fordier, whose age she admits is 83 years has just published all the letters she has received during her life containing offers of marriage in connection with a recent newspaper contest for an ideal love letter.

Incidentally the old lady wishes to show that if she has remained single so long it was not because of the lack of opportunity as malignant tongue would have it.

Her letters just published number 8,969, and were written by 375 men. Of these one is a general of the army, another a commodore, two are colonels, thirty-three lieutenants, 102 orderlies, forty-six captains of merchant vessels, four engineers, one aeronaut, ten chauffeurs, four coachmen, 191 cooks and servants, forty janitors, sixteen doctors of medicine, eight lawyers and two missionaries in foreign countries.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the suffering it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs croup, and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bros.

The Boys' Cigarette Habit.

Various devices have been proposed for inducing boys to leave off the smoking of cigarettes. Clubs, the members of which are pledged not to smoke them, school prizes for those who do not smoke, chewing-gum warranted to destroy the desire for the cigarette, even laws against the making and selling of cigarettes—all these have testified to the effect on the part of parents and teachers to reduce the evil effects of smoking when practiced by young boys.

None of these devices succeeds so well as it ought to succeed. The boys club, the school prize and the State law reach a certain number of offenders, but the worst cases remain, and go on destroying themselves and corrupting others.

The truth probably is that the old-fashioned appeal to the will of the boy himself is the only efficient cure of the cigarette habit. He must be told plainly that he is sacrificing his health, his brain and his future to his bad habit. The facts are clear and forcible enough to convince his reason, if he will once listen to them. Then must follow the plain, bold statement: "Nobody can help you but yourself. It is doubtful if you have even now enough will left to stop smoking. If you haven't enough to-day, you will have less next week and still less next month. Unless you break off the habit you are in danger of becoming a burden to everybody—especially to your friends, to yourself most of all. If you want to stop smoking, the way to do it is to stop smoking."

Many a boy who would sneer at milder methods will rise in response to this heroic one. The brutal truth carries a weight far beyond that of the comfortable half-truths with which we often try to rouse a sleeping conscience. All substitutes for conscience and will are doomed to failure. The boy who cannot kill off a bad habit must live with it till it kills him.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes:

"My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once and a complete cure followed. THE ground hog acted wiser than

GOVERNOR BECKHAM may yet ask for help to let 'em go.

UNLESS you can say a good word
for your town, say nothing.

WE are always suspicious of a reformer, until he reforms a while.

WILL the Hartford Herald please tell us what it thinks of our new Representative district?

WE have appropriated $1,250,000 for the new Capitol building, and the corner stone is not yet laid.

WE hope the anti-Saloon League will not lie down to sleep any dark night, and leave Col. Jack Chinn to do guard duty.

CONDITIONS are going to be favorable for the Republicans in this Congressional district this year. With a strong candidate, we should win.

IN our controversy with the Herald, concerning the county indebtedness, it seems to have assumed the part of the old woman, who is bound to have the last word.

HON. JOHN MARSHALL, who was elected Lieutenant Governor in 1899, robbed of his office by J. C.
W. Beckham, would lead the party to victory, if nominated for Governor or next year.

THE recent fire which came so near destroying our college building, emphasizes the necessity for a water works system in our town. Our bucket brigade always does well, but sometimes it will get too hot for it.

BLEUGRASS Republicans should be very modest in their claims at the next State Convention. Most of them are holding Federal offices.
They furnish no members of the Legislature. No county officers and very few votes in State elections.

THE same conduct by a Republican Legislature, in any Northern State, would cause it to go Democratic at the next State election.
Next year we will have an opportunity to see if the same spirit of independence and resentment exists in Kentucky.

IN his letter to Kentucky Republicans, which was read at the harmony banquet, recently, Mr. Yerkes said, "No one man will dictate the next Republican nomination for Governor." Some one must keep him reasonably well posted about Republican sentiment in Kentucky.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL MOODY did something which no Attorney-General had ever done, when he appeared before a jury at Chicago, this week, to represent the Government in the beef trust cases. This shows that the administration is in earnest in its efforts to protect the people against unfair advantage.

IT's sins of omission are almost as bad as those of commission. The Legislature refused to make any provision for Kentucky to be represented at the great Jamestown Exposition next year. If it failed to create any new office which was suggested, or raise salaries of the pets,
it was purely an oversight.

NO MUGWUMP will be nominated by the Republicans for President next time. It will be only fair to name some one who will have the same sense of discrimination between a Democrat and a Republican, when he has an appointment to make, that he would have the voter make when he casts his ballot at the election.

THE possibility of enforcing a law is the very last thing thought of by those who pass it. The effective remedy for violations lies in an awakened public sentiment. Laws are important and necessary, but their very multiplicity hinders enforcement. Better a few healthy laws well enforced, than a Statute full which are a dead letter. Our officers should be held to a strict account by those who elect them.

Compel them to put your laws into effect. If they are bad, public opinion will soon bring about their repeal.

OHIO COUNTY was not deprived of her Representative to increase the Democratic majority in the House.
They did not need that. It was done because of a promise made by the State machine to the present Representative from Bullitt and Spencer. By this promise he was induced to vote for Payne for Senator, although Spencer was a strong Blackburn county. Therefore
Mr. Croan, of dog tax fame, was relieved of Spencer, so that the Blackburn element cannot worry him when he asks for renomination next year. Small piece of business.
No wonder Croan's mind ran after the dogs.

WE agree with the Herald in its suggestion that some step should be taken to give the Ohio county wanderers suitable reception here, during Kentucky home coming week. Hundreds of the very best people the State ever produced have gone out to other climes from Ohio county. Many have already announced that they are coming back to see us. Let's make them feel real sorry they ever left. An old time barbecue, at the Fair grounds, with music and speeches, would be about the right thing. This will give them a chance to meet their friends and renew acquaintances of the long ago.

WITHOUT disputing any contention, heretofore made by this paper or the committee, with reference to the county indebtedness, the Herald this week calls on us to publish the entire list of claims allowed, to whom etc., to make up the $24,182.
46. The Herald knows that is ridiculous.
We gave the list by items.
They stand undisputed. If you can prove we are wrong by publishing the entire list, "to whom allowed, for what allowed, when allowed and when payable," we should think you would be only too glad to publish them in the Herald. The records are open to you. We are willing for the case to go to the jury as made out by the evidence submitted.

IT HAS been almost two years since the last knock-out was administered to the Democratic party. It is just beginning to sit up and take notice.
Judge Parker suggests that some Southern man put on the gloves next time. These were his first words. Mr. Bryan was given a second trial, and we think in justice to Mr. Parker, he should be given a second nomination. In this connection we cannot refrain from reproducing this bright one from the Yellow Jacket: "In thinking about what is liable to happen at the next Democratic National Convention, and wondering who the unfortunate victim will be, we are reminded of how Pat popped the question. While out walking in the moonlight with his "intended" he carried her to the family graveyard. "Jennie," he began, all my people are buried here.
Wouldn't you like to be buried here too?"

FIRE MARSHAL.

Among other needless offices created by the Legislature is that of State Fire Marshal, which we understand was created at the suggestion of the fire insurance companies and their salary is to be paid by them. He is supposed to investigate all losses of doubtful character and may summon witnesses and inaugurate a court of inquiry.

This is a dangerous departure:
It's only purpose can be to throw stumbling blocks in the way of collecting fire losses, and to do so in the name and under the authority of the State. The policy holder who suffers a loss may have the payment held up pending an investigation by a State officer who is under the pay of the very insurance company who carries the policy. Besides, who doubts for one moment that the salary, provided for a Fire Marshal, will at last be paid by the policy holder? Of course, the State Fire Marshal is to be made part and parcel of the State machine, and will be filled by some good henchman at $2,- 400 per year, appointed by the Insurance Commissioner.

That Board of Control.

(Mayfield Monitor, Dem.)

Mr. Beckham has announced the names of his three commissioners, and if he had raked the state with a finetooth comb he could not have served his purpose better or that the people would have more cause to fear in the place to which he has assigned them. They are Dr. Board

Perry Haley and D. B. Redwine.

Haley is the present adjutant general and is the man who was accused of supplying the militia, at Paducah
last year, with provision without allowing Covington Bros., Leiderman and other grocers to compete for the business. A committee at Frankfort reported a few days since that they had investigated this charge against Haley and acquitted him—but they had neither Covington
nor Beiderman before them.

Dr. Board is the man who sent a petition to Senator Owen of the Tenth senatorial district and Representative E. H. Shellman, of Breckenridge county, with more than three hundred names said to have been forged under his supervision and direction, asking them to support all men and measures which are indorsed by the administration of Gov. Beckham."

The third member of the new board is Judge D. B. Redwine whose rulings as chairman of the Music Hall convention drove Wat Hardin, John Young Brown, W. J. Stone and thousands of other good Democrats out of the party and finally resulted in the murder of William Goebel.
These are the three men chosen by the boss to look after the welfare of the helpless.

Judge Redwine is by long odds
the best man of the lot.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day.
Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. Ayer's Sarsaparilla stimulates the liver and the impurities and obnoxious substances are then eliminated into the blood.
Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.

EARLY GOTHAM AMENITIES.

Story of Dutch Neighbors Who Never Spoke as They Passed and the Reason Thereof.

Long after the Dutch had taken Holland and years subsequent to the war in which they were said to have utilized Edam cheeses for cannon balls, say, some time in the seventeenth century, two Vans left the old Amsterdam and came to "Nieuw Amsterdam" on two Dutch ships with their families, and settled for good and all in two adjoining houses in the old Bridge-strasse, which is Bridge street still, despite the march of improvement. One was Van Cortlandt, a blacksmith, and the other Van Velsor, a dealer in goose feathers and beds and pillows.

To say they were conventional would have been to malign the honest, hospitable Dutch, but the fact remained that although these two had lived neighbors 16 years they never even nodded to each other and gave every sign of a fierce desire to avoid meeting or brushing up an acquaintance. In those days the blacksmith had no occasion to visit a feather foundry, and as Van Velsor had not found it profitable to put iron filings in his feather beds and pillows these Hollandish neighbors never struck up any business relations together. As all Dutch houses in those days were built alike in many respects, without what we now call "basements," and with stoops raised only an inch or two above the sidewalk, each stoop having a wooden railing and a wooden seat arranged benchwise on either side, the reticent neighbors could not resist the temptation of occupying one seat each after supper.

After 16 years of silence between them, one summer evening van Velsor found himself warming up to the subject of acquaintance with his neighbor. Just what were the feelings of Van Cortlandt upon the subject he did not know, but he smoked two pipes while considering and after lighting the third and settling himself down to business glanced furtively at his neighbor who, although not returning the glance, seemed to be pliant to it, and the feathery Van, very much to his astonishment, heard himself saying:

"Vot you dinks 'bout de veder?"
Not a muscle of the blacksmith's face moved and the feather foundryman did not turn a hair of his caput while pulling vigorously at his pipe, but shrank within himself in utter astonishment and fear. The Van on the other stoop took five minutes in which to reply:

"I dunno. Vot you dinks?"
Van Velsor found himself up against a very grave matter. He was in a peculiarly mellow state of mind, propitiated by an extra glass of schnapps which gave him courage to meet the occasion and at heart he felt it quite the ripe time to break the silence. He appreciated he must be conservative and conciliatory, for it would never do at this trying moment to differ with his neighbor, so he faintly muttered:

"I dinks noddings."
Van Cortlandt slowly turned his head, took a look at the other Van, and said: "I dinks so doo!"

This explains why the Van Velsors and the Van Cortlands never spoke as they passed by and always met as strangers.

Cost of Wrecks.

When an English vessel is wrecked an immense amount of red tape must be gone through before the case is finally closed. It depends a great deal of course on the nature of the wreck but supposing for argument's sake that a vessel carrying a valuable cargo has been wrecked by being cast ashore and that no lives are lost. The first thing to be done is for one of the officers in charge of the vessel the Captain or a subordinate to make his way to the Receiver of Wrecks and lodge a report of what has happened—in short make a deposition.

This must give full particulars including the name of the vessel its number and tonnage name and address of owners age rig and build of the ship description of the cargo number of the crew who the shippers and the consignees are if any passengers how many and whether the wives and children of any of the evil spirit.

There was a famous instance some years ago on the South Florida railway. A locomotive killed so many people that she gained the name of "The Hearse," and no fewer than three engine drivers actually left the employ of the company rather than continue driving her. The odd thing was that she never seemed to injure herself. Eventually her owners were forced to break her up although she was by no means worn out.

Of actual ghosts in trains or railway engines one very seldom hears.

Fears of Famous Men.

All great people have their follies which is another way of saying that all have their weak points. Dr. Johnson with all his philosophy was not without superstition. He was very careful not to enter a room with his left foot foremost. He was terribly afraid of death, too and would not suffer it to be mentioned in his presence.

Julius Caesar to whom the shouts of thousands of the enemy were but sweet music was mortally afraid of the sound of thunder and always wanted to get underground to escape the dreadful noise.

Marshal Saxe who loved to look upon the ranks of opposing armies, fled and schreemed in terror at the sight of a cat.

Peter the great could scarcely be persuaded to cross a bridge and whenever he placed his foot on one he would cry out with fear. Like the great man he was he tried to overcome his weakness but he was never able to do so. And Byron would never help anyone to salt at the table nor would he be helped himself and if any salt were spilled he would immediately get up and leave.

Pleasant Job.

"Oh, George, I'm so glad you've come," exclaimed the sweet girl. "Father is so excited and disturbed. Do go in and calm him."

"Very well," replied Mr. Lovett, "what's the matter with him?"

"Why—er—I just told him you wanted to marry me."

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and cleanse the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Keneddy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup the best known remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless. Sold by Z. Wayny Griffin & Bro.

Superstitions About Engines.

You never see a ship launched on a Friday, and similarly a new locomotive hardly ever makes a trial trip on that day or on the thirteenth of the month. Even though the superintendent may jeer at this superstition, yet he knows too well to set it at naught, for just as sailors consider that some shipments are unlucky, so do train hands credit certain locomotives with a sort of demoniacal possession.

It is certainly very strange the difference that may be observed between two locomotives built from the same plans at the same time of similar material. One goes on her way quietly and smoothly, never breaks down, costs little or nothing for repairs; the other causes trouble from the very first, runs off the line, kills the drivers, gets into accidents of all kinds and generally acts as though possessed by some one who has lost his way to its center and stands looking down at the torrent twirling a hundred feet below to say the least a strange one. I was glad enough to creep across unencumbered to have had to lug the heavy loads our coolies carried which would have been a handicap which I should as gracefully as possible have declined."

FREE TRIP TO MAMMOTH CAVE.

Offered By The Republican to School Boys of Ohio County.

Our Readers Will Name the Most Popular Boy in Each Magisterial District.

How many persons in Ohio county have seen the Mammoth Cave? Situated less than 100 miles from us, it is visited every year by people from every land, as one of the seven wonders of the world. Doubtless many of our readers have been embarrassed when in other States, they were asked to describe the wonderful Kentucky Cave and were compelled to admit, to the utter astonishment of the questioner, that they have never seen it. To contribute somewhat toward this necessary part of the boys education, the management of this paper has decided to inaugurate a pilgrimage to the cave for the first week in September of this year, and seven school boys, one from each Magisterial district in Ohio county, between the ages of 12 and 20 will be given the trip free of charge accompanied by one of the editors.

OUR PLAN.

Every school boy in Ohio county who was not less than 12 nor more than 20 years old January 1, 1906, will be entitled to be voted for. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes cast for any one in his district will be entitled to the trip. Every candidate must reside in the district from which he is named, and the right is reserved to withdraw the offer in any district from which only one is nominated. Every year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN of $1.00, whether arrears or advance, will entitle the subscriber to 10 votes, and six months subscription to 5 votes. The names of candidates with number of votes received to date will be published each week. No employee or member of the family of any one connected with this paper will be eligible as a candidate. Persons sending votes by mail, will please cut out and use the following ballot:

THE DISTRICTS.

The seven Districts are made up of territory as follows:

Do You Know Joe Chapple and his National Magazine

Joe Mitchell Chapple

THERE will be doings in Washington this winter, and I want to write you about them. For five years I have been in elbow touch with prominent men in public affairs and take a keen interest in writing all about them. Now permit me to send you twelve letters this year—"Snap Shots"—pen pictures of public men. The National has 120 pages of bright stories and illustrated articles from others who write authoritatively on things of to-day and to-morrow. Do you know tells the story? Come with me this winter to the White House during the receptions and functions, to the executive offices and various other departments of the government. Come with me to the Capitol on the hill and learn about matters of vital interest to every American. If you knew how much pleasure these things afford one, you would understand how we have already secured a quarter-million regular subscribers. The foremost Americans write for, and read the National Magazine. Each number contains new and interesting portraits and personal sketches of men and women prominent in public affairs. High grade novels head the National's 1906 Fiction List—stories that breathe the spirit of to-day. The Home Department's "Little Helps" are rapidly becoming famous for their boiled-down, common-sense usefulness to house-keepers. Charles Warren Stoddard, in Literary Affairs; Dallas Lore Sharpe, on Nature Study; Robert Edgren, on Sports; Poulton Bigelow, on Foreign Affairs; Frank Putnam, on American Politics; Senators Allison, Procter and Bailey, Vice-President Fairbanks, Congressmen Cooper, McCleary,—and many other prominent men are among the contributors of the National Magazine for 1906. Send on your subscription, $1.00 for the year. The National Magazine is not included in any periodical combination—it stands alone.

The National Magazine

The "Heart Throb" Book

L AST year we advertised for "Heart Throb" contributions. All sorts of clippings that had appealed to the people were sent to us. We wanted to know what makes sunny days enduring and dark days endurable. We paid in cash $10,000 in $40 prize awards. These contributions now printed in book form, over 400 pages, are the favorite gems of President Roosevelt, the late Secretary Hay, Speaker Cannon, and other celebrities: also thousands of selections from new subscribers. The awards were made by Admiral Dewey and Senator Allison. This book is unique; a rare volume—just the thing for a friendship gift. In addition to the other attractions in this volume, the last 32 pages are left blank, arranged so that your selections may be added by either writing or pasting on the blank pages, from time to time, pieces you wish to preserve. The first edition has been nearly sold, so those who would avoid waiting for the second edition should order now. Fill out the attached coupon and send it in at once. Books shipped in the order of coupons received. Price $1.50.

Japanese Quilts.

One of the nicest modern bed covering is the Japanese quilt and as the original idea can be easily copied it deserves recognition. The drawbacks incident to the cheaper makes of eiderdown are well known. It is a case of fluff everywhere and very often uncomfortable though the good eiderdown quilt may be it is just a little heavy.

Japanese quilts are made of sheet wadding covered with good pongee silk. A convenient size is two yards long by one and a half wide. The silk should be of two colors in order to look effective, a pretty combination being salmon pink and deep green.

The wadding is placed inside the silk which has previously been made into a sort of slip cover and now has the open end joined up. Sew right through the wadding with very neat running stitches to make a bader about two inches wide and then do a series of runnings across the quilt always through the wadding at intervals of about an inch.

One corner can be beautified by an initial or spray of flowers.

These quilts made at home are quite inexpensive and undeniably comfortable. They can be honestly recommended to those who like their beds to look nice in the daytime and to be warm at night.

Honestones of Belgium.

Certain districts of Belgium have the unique distinction of possessing the stone mines or quarries of crystalline slate or cotula. The quality of the stone is much appreciated by the cutlery manufacturers of England. These mines or quarries have been worked for centuries and are at present exporting the product to all counties of the world. This crystalline slate is very rich in garnet and possesses characteristics similar to the adjacent phyllads and is composed of a paste formed of about one-third of a variety of hydrated mica resembling the damonite. The strength and thickness of a stone usually determines its value. If the stone contains the white substance for more than one hole it is cut into small layers and one or two are attached to a stone produced from other quarries. This attachment is made by using a paste composed of wax and black rosin.

Prolixity of Lawyers.

A number of men at the New York club were discussing the question of style when professional men have occasion to express themselves in writing, whereupon one of the group, a lawyer, remarked:

"From the standpoint of clerical and explicitness of diction, I can safely say that we lawyers are unexcelled. For instance if my friend the doctor here, was to give anyone an orange he would no doubt simply say: 'I give you the orange,' but should the transaction be intrusted to one of our legal lights to put in writing he would adopt something like this form.

"I hereby give, grant and convey to you, all my interest, right, title and advantage of and in said orange together with its rind, skin, juice, pulp and pips; and all rights and advantages therein with full privilege to bite, suck or otherwise eat the same, or give away with or without the rind, skin, juice, pulp or pips; anything hereinbefore or in any other deed or deeds, instruments of any nature or kind whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding."

The Breath Of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others Mrs. Ora A. Stevens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat troubles." Guaranteed by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Recipe For a Happy life.

The Boston Budget Beacon gives the following "Recipe for a Happy Life," as the composition of Margaret of Navarre in 1500:

Three ounces are necessary first of patience.

Then of repose and peace of conscience a pound is needful.

Of pastime of all sorts too should be gathered as much as the hand can hold.

Of pleasant memory and of hope three good drachms.

There must be at least; but they should moistened be.

With a liquor made from true pleasures which rejoice the heart.

Then of love's magic drops a few

But use them sparingly for they may bring a flame

Which naught but tears can drown. Grind the whole and mix therewith of merriment an ounce

To live, it all this may not bring happiness.

Except in your orisons you lift your voice

To Him who holds the gift of health.

Father's Forgotten Classics.

William had just returned from college to spend his spring vacation. One of the things most noticed by the young man was Fanny, the daughter, of Si Perkins, a near neighbor, who had during his absence changed from a tomboyish school girl into very beautiful young woman. It seems his father had also noticed the change, and remarked to his son son:

"William, had you noticed how old Si Perkins' daughter, Fanny, has shot up? Seems to me she's gettin' to be a jolly, handsome your critter!"

"She certainly is, father," said William, enthusiastically. "Fanny is as beautiful as Hebe."

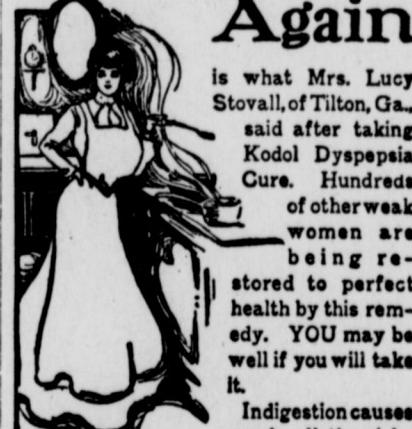

"Where's your eyes, boy?" objected the father. "She's a darn sight prettier than he be! Old Si is as homely as Bill Jones' bull pup."

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuff, for they contain cocaine. MAJESTIC BAKING DEMONSTRATION

ONE WEEK, MARCH 26 TO 31.

We heartily invite our friends to call any day during the above mentioned week and we will demonstrate the superior qualities of the

New Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Ranges.

The MAJESTIC MALLEABLE and steel range as formerly turned out by the Majestic people has been considered throughout the entire country par-excellence, and far ahead of any other range made. But with the NEW CHARCOAL IRON BODY in place of Steel, making it double its value, and the fact that it is the only range in existence made of Malleable and Charcoal Iron, you can readily see that if quality is considered, the Majestic leads by a big margin. WE WANT YOU TO CALL at our store during this week, and let us explain this new feature: CHARCOAL IRON BODIES; let us explain why it is the best material for range bodies, and incidentally, why it is not used on other ranges. We want you to call if you intend to buy or not as the information gained will serve you in the future.

Hot Coffee and Biscuits—FREE.

Come any day during this week and have buttered hot biscuits and hot coffee. Biscuits baked on a Majestic in three minutes while you wait.

Handsome Set of Ware—FREE.

With every range sold during this Demonstration we will give absolutely FREE one set of Majestic ware worth every cent of $7.50. This ware will be on exhibition at our store. Everything useful, ornamental and durable. Come in and see it, and you will agree with us that it cannot be bought for a cent less than $7.50, and it is cheap at that.

Come in Any Day, You Are Welcome Whether You Intend to Buy or Not.
